

A day in the life of a PLC language learner....

Monday, Wednesday, Friday

8-8:30	Breakfast at home with your Costa Rican family
9:00 - 11: 00	Spanish class
12 - 1	Lunch at home with your family
1:00 - 4	Homework, reading, listening to Spanish music
5 - 5:30	Walk across the road to the beach for the amazing sunset
6 - 6:30	Dinner with the family
8 or 9	Bed - you will be tired!

Tuesday and Thursday

8-8:30	Breakfast
9 - 12	Your route to visit locals and practice your Spanish You will have texts to use for conversation practice
12-1	Lunch
1- 4	Free time to do unfinished homework, roam the beach, surf, swim, rest, read, etc
5-5:30	Enjoy the sunset on the beach
6-6:30	Dinner
8 or 9	Bed

Saturday and Sunday

These are days where you decide your day. Check the Student Life section for some attractions in the area that you might wish to visit. Ask Mary or Carlos for ideas when you are in class on M, W and F. Or you may wish to simply relax and enjoy the beach community around you. For those sport minded people, you can do running in the mornings or evenings and can usually find a futbol or volleyball game to join.